Resolutions were passed condemning

Resolutions were passed condemning ministers for getting divorces from their wives. Bishop Handy declared that no man in the connection in the district would receive an appointment who had more than one wirfer. They also condemned the use of whickly, and several men, who were found guilty of using intoxicant drinks, were left without appointments. Rev. James Minter was expelled from the connection for having two wives.

The ruling of Bishop Handy is regarded as a progressive step for the elevation of the negro race.

Pisnters Tobacco Warchouse, Moody & Olive Tobacco factory, and two blacksmith shops were destroyed by fire in Mount Airy at 4:45 o'clock this morning. It started in an unoccupied part of the warchouse and its origin is unknown. For some time it looked like the fire would extend to Blue Ridge Inn Hotel, which was near by. The guests were greatly excited when the alarm was cornect in and rushed out of the building in great haste. Had the wind been blowing from the southwest, says one who witnessed the fire, the entire town no doubt would have been destroyed.

An East-End Marriage,

An East-End Marriage.

Miss Ida F. Crafton and Mr. Sylvester Wright were married at 3:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the residence of the bride. No. 2005 cast Clay street. Rev. L. M. Omer, pastor of the Third Christian church, performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a blue travelling suit, and is an accomplished and attractive young lady. Mr. Wright is an estimable attache of the Southern toad. The attendants were Messrs. Eddie Burton and Arche Williams.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wright took the train for a trip through the North. Upon their return they will reside in Manchester, the former home of the groom.

You wonder why your boy doesn't like his clothes; doesn't take care of them-because he doesn't take pride in them.

Boys would rather have clothes from the store the father buys from than from where the women, babies, and girls deal.

As soon as boys are out of skirts we provide for them-from head to toe.

And you can buy with your eyes "Your money back if you want it," says so. SMALL BOYS' SUITS.
